

City Hall

2 N Main St

The art deco Municipal Building was erected in 1929. City offices, a large auditorium, library, civic center headquarters, the office of city veterinarian Dr. W.F. Hackney and the Temple Police Department occupied the building. City offices continue to occupy the building today.